Indexes available with the Allianz® RILA index strategies

■ S&P 500® Index	A large-cap American stock market index based on market capitalizations of 500 companies. Often considered one of the best overall representations of the U.S. stock market.
■ Russell 2000® Index	A small-cap stock market index of the smallest 2,000 companies in the Russell 3000 Index. A common benchmark for companies that identify as small-cap based on market capitalization.
■ Nasdaq-100® Index	A large-cap market index that includes 100 of the largest domestic and international nonfinancial securities listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market.
■ iShares® MSCI Emerging Markets ETF	An exchange-traded fund that seeks to track the investment results of the MSCI Emerging Markets Index, which is designed to measure equity market performance in the global emerging markets. The underlying index may include large- and mid-capitalization companies.
■ EURO STOXX 50®	An international stock market index that provides a blue-chip representation of supersector leaders in the Eurozone. The index covers 50 stocks from 11 Eurozone countries.

Although an index or indexes will affect your index option values, the index options do not directly participate in any stock or equity investment and are not a direct investment in an index. The indexes are price return indexes, not total return indexes. This means that the index options do not receive any dividends payable on these securities.

Diversifying index option allocations within a RILA does not ensure a performance credit in any term.
